BENEFITING INJURED FIRST RESPONDERS

Competition Rules

COOKS MEETING: The cooks meeting will be held at the discretion of the Judging coordinator and Promoter. Usually 7:00 am Saturday Morning. The Judging Coordinator will go over all contest rules, turn in times and quantity of each product. All head cooks or a representative must attend. Any questions you may have will be answered by the Judging Coordinator.

COOKED ON SITE: All meat will be brought to the cooking site raw. No pre-marinating presoaking or pre-spicing prior to start time. Pre-trimming of competition products is allowed and may be removed from the store packaging unless there is a health department rule requiring that all products must be in store packaging when the product is inspected. If this is the case, it must be made clear on the cook-off flyer and registration form. Once a team and their meats have arrived at the event, the meats are not allowed to be removed from the competition grounds. Meat will be prepared from scratch within the constraints of the competition site. Cooks may begin preparing their products after registration is completed, or on Friday, whichever time comes first.

SANITATION: Cooks are to prepare and cook in as sanitary manner as is possible. It is recommended that all cooks, prior to handling the products, wash hands, use gloves, and avoid cross contamination. Cooking conditions are subject to inspection. The head cook will be required to address any unsanitary practices identified.

BBQ PITS: Pit will be any commercial or homemade, trailered or un-trailered pit or smoker. A BBQ Pit may include gas or electricity for starting the combustion of wood or wood products but can NOT be used as a heat source for cooking. Electrical accessories such as spits, augers or force drafts are permitted.

ENTRIES PER PIT: Q4B only allows one head cook on a given pit. Multiple entries in the same category by the same cook, or multiple entries from the same piece of meat shall not be allowed. If a minor is listed as head cook, that team WILL NOT be allowed a second team entry.

JUDGING TRAYS: All categories will be submitted in identical containers supplied by the Judging Coordinator. For chicken, a 13"X9" tray and for the meats a 9"x9" hinged foam tray. Trays will have a matched pair of blue identically numbered theater tickets affixed to the tray, and a piece of foil for each container. Trays for unsanctioned categories will be marked for that category, or have a different color ticket. Each Cook will be instructed to PRINT the Head Cooks name in ink on the blank side of the ticket when picking up their trays. The head cooks name must be the same as the name on the Tray pickup form. This ticket will be used to match to the ticket on the winning box. Only the name printed on the winning ticket will be entered on the winner's sheet, by the Judging Coordinator.

TRAY CONTENTS: Q4B requires that the Judging Coordinator advise all cooks of the exact quantities and cuts of meat that will be placed in the judging trays. This will be announced at the Cook's meeting. The Judging Coordinator or designated representative will inspect all trays at the time of turn-in to assure compliance with the turn-in criteria. If the contents are not as per our rules, or appears to be marked, the person turning in the tray will be given the opportunity to correct it. Once a product has been accepted, it will go to a judging table. Meats may be cooked with sauces and/or other liquids, but once the cooking is complete, sauces and/or liquids may not be added in the tray. Cooks will be required to remove excessive liquids. Each tray will include one sheet of foil placed under the contents in that tray. No garnishes or condiments are allowed.

TRAY DISQUALIFICATION: If the contents are not as per our rules, or appears to be marked, the person turning in the tray will be given the opportunity to correct it. Once a product has been accepted, it will go to a judging table.
